

1.) CAT 1. - Female

Tcohen4@tampabay.rr.com

My name is Trish Cohen. I'm a 31 year-old Cat 1. I've been racing since 06', but had health issues from April of 07' to Feb of 09' and again from May of 09' to March of 10'. However, I'm healthy now and have been racing since the latter part of 2010. I raced Redlands in 07' and Gila in 09', and finished mid-packish, but that was just before my health issues.

Recent Results:

Fall of 2010:

3rd place at Masters Nationals (after crashing out of the leading two person break in the rain) 30-34 age group

Florida State Champion Road Race (won by over 3 minutes)

Ft. Desoto Time trial series winner and record holder

Queen of the Mountains at Six Gap Century

2011:

I've won 5 races this year (TT, Crit and Circuit at Swamp Classic; Road Race and overall Omnium at the Chain of Lakes Classic; Race of the West) and was on the podium in several other races. I'm more of a climber/TT'er than a sprinter.

WhitneySchultz is ready to begin her fifth year of competitive cycling. She first was introduced to cycling her freshman year at the University of Texas at Austin, where she graduated in 2010 with a degree in Marketing, and competed for the collegiate team throughout college. For the 2008 season, she joined local, Austin-based team, Team Hotel San Jose. In 2009, she competed for Metro Volkswagen Cycling and for ten weeks during that summer, she raced for Swiss-team Team Bike-Import.ch. In 2010, she competed for Veloforma, focusing on the Women's Prestige Series. She is an all-rounder on the bike, particularly strong in time trials and stage races.

10.) Female - Cat 1

Lauren Robertson
lauren.m.r@att.net
(972) 523-4321

Lauren Robertson began road racing in 2009, and quickly upgraded to a Category 1 by 2010. She took the leader's jersey at the Tour of America's Dairyland, before leaving the series for Elite Nationals in 2010. Lauren's great endurance base came from her long term running career which included running for Southern Methodist University. Lauren prefers stage racing, but is a great all around cyclist. She also races cycle-cross, track, and mountain bikes. Lauren finished up her Bachelors degree in December and is now a high school math teacher.
